

JODIEJOY MUSIC

BIOGRAPHY

FROM NATIONAL POP STAR AND TELEVISION PERSONALITY TO INDEPENDENT ARTIST, JODIE-JOY COMBINES POWERHOUSE VOCALS AND A LIFETIME OF SONGWRITING AND LIVE PERFORMANCES TO SERVE UP A SIGNATURE BRAND OF SOULFUL POP.

With two records, new singles and a music documentary under her belt, Jodie-Joy has worked with renowned producers across the US, Sweden and Australia, including Grammy-winning producer Marc Swersky (Hilary Duff, Joe Cocker), Daniel Jones (Savage Garden), Hayden Bell (The Veronicas) and Audius (Delta Goodrem).

As a third generation singer and granddaughter of operatic tenor, Donald Sydney Smith OBE, Jodie-Joy began formal singing and dance training at just four years old, leading to an incredible career that has seen her perform regularly on national television, voted runner-up in reality talent show, Popstars, and released under Columbia Records.

Known for her exceptional vocal range and enigmatic stage presence, Jodie-Joy has toured throughout Australia, USA and South-East Asia, opened the Logies awards as member of all girl band, Pop Tarts, and starred in countless cabaret and musical theatre productions.

Living a life as large as her voice, Jodie-Joy has no shortage of heartfelt stories to tell, with a brand new adult contemporary album, set for release in 2021 off the back of latest singles, 'Free Ride' and 'Love Hate'.

Email Management: info@jodiejoy.com.au